

Over the Rainbow (PLC Song)
Words by Beth Davisson, February 2007

Somewhere, over the rainbow,
Bluebirds flee,
There's a school that we know is
Truly a PLC.

Somewhere, over the rainbow,
Skies are gray,
There are three major things
That strong PLC's all say.

The first big goal for which they yearn,
Is to ensure that students learn. (Exactly)
And then in order to be great,
It's vital to collaborate,
And don't forget: Accountability.

Somewhere, over the rainbow,
Bats can see,
And a school really can transform to a PLC.

If they can be a PLC,
Beyond the rainbow,
Why, oh why, can't we?
